"The quaint fishing village of Lumbarda and the Adriatic Sea provide the enchanting vista from this modern, 4-bedroom family villa private pool, gym and jacuzzi on the Croatian island of Korkula".

If you are looking for private moments surrounded by a spectacular scenery, this modern luxury villa with breath-taking views of the mountains and the sea is just what you need. This property gives you the opportunity for both an active and relaxing vacation. Although it offers privacy, everything you need is very close with the city centre only 5 km and the beach 1 km away. The accommodation is arranged over two floors connected via external stairs, each featuring two en suite bedrooms, their own living/ dining area and kitchen, therefore particularly suitable for two families travelling together who can keep a certain degree of privacy whilst on holiday. Lumbarda is a ideal for a family vacation with kids as the beaches are easily accessible and are considered among the most beautiful on the island of Korcula. For active holiday seekers, this area is perfect for long walks along the beautiful coast, and it's popular among mountain bikers and cyclists. Further afield the Peljesac peninsula, Dubrovnik, or the Mljet National Park are all well worth visiting.
