"Nestled at the foot of the Corsican Massis de Bavella, amidst the wooded hills surrounding Porto Vecchio, this charming and elegantly furnished family villa with heatable pool enjoys a peaceful situation just a short drive from the beach".

The interior is cool and elegant in classical French style; a charming fireplace, marble floors and comfortable sofas. The sitting room opens out onto a flagstone terrace for outside dining and steps drop down to the pool and the well maintained grounds. There are wonderful views of the Corsican countryside from here with gentle rolling hills and a spectacular mountain range. This property features a separate adjacent guest cottage with its own en suite shower room, perfect for grandparents or a couple needing more privacy from family or friends.
