"Ideally situated between Hyde Park and trendy Notting Hill, this 7-bedroom London town house boasts a lovely landscaped garden, superb facilities and entertainment for families with children and fine artwork in each room".

An ideal location with London's main landmarks, fine restaurants and boutiques at your fingertips but with the chance to relax in your 'family home' with a lovely garden for your al fresco dinners and for the children to play, a home cinema, a fitness room and much more. Although you won't need a car to travel around London, this property offers off-street parking. Those passionate about art will find themselves surrounded by pieces in every room. The luxury accommodation is arranged over five floors to welcome 11 guests, including little ones - but be aware there are several flights of stairs here!
