"Built over two levels with a sophisticated contemporary design this impressive top floor apartment with rooftop terrace in Leicester square affords spectacular views over London's buzzing West End".

Architecturally daring, the design of this luxury property features high vaulted ceilings, curved glazed walls and a geometrical pattern of wooden beams as counterpoint to the Mondrian-inspired interior decor. Access to this apartment is via an internal lift. The accommodation includes a huge living area split over two levels connected via a spiral staircase and three luxurious double bedrooms, with two refined bathrooms. The focal point is the terrace equipped for al fresco dining and lounging in front of London's iconic skyline. Soho is on your doorstep with countless bars, restaurants, night clubs, cinemas and theatres to entertain you day and night.
