"Situated in the Mile End Park area of East London among Victorian terraces and other period houses, this impressive family home boasts original character and a delightful tropical garden with direct access to the park via a secret door - just 15 minutes by tube to Oxford Street".

This quirky property is decorated with vibrant colours in an eclectic style combining modern and contemporary pieces of furniture. The open plan living space opens up to the fabulous tropical garden via foldable doors on 2 sides, seamlessly blending indoor and outdoor space. This property features 3 bedrooms and families travelling with children will be pleased to find plenty of toys and children's equipment at their disposal. Adjacent to the park, this property is conveniently located to reach local shops, markets and eateries but also Soho and Oxford Street with a 15-minute journey on the Circle line.
