"Within a 5 minute walk of the local village and beach at Gouvia, in a green and verdant location, this is a villa in a privileged position that also enjoys a tennis court within the grounds."

The house itself is a fusion of styles with a nod to its neoclassical past, for example its French wall panels and use of marbles, but with a definite feel of modernity in the living and kitchen areas. The pool is particularly impressive, running the full length of the villa and with extensive outdoor seating and dining spaces.

There is a separate guest house in the grounds and a garden level spa area with sauna and steam room.

Nearest beach 5 minutes on foot, the local village in 2 minutes. Corfu town 15 minutes by car, Corfu airport 15 minutes. Gouvia itself has several beaches (sand, shingle and pebbles) and several tiny coves. Enjoy paragliding, diving and most watersports (horse riding in the hills behind is also possible). Being in the middle of the island, it's a good base to explore via mountain bike too. There are several restaurants serving both Greek and international dishes in Gouvia. It is possible to get the bus into Corfu (15 mins) for those that don't wish to drive.
