"A secluded pebble beach within a minutes walk, gorgeous pool and outdoor dining overlooking the sea – perfection!"

Built from local stone, this villa oozes character. The décor is neutral pastel shades, beamed ceilings and marble flooring creating a contemporary and comfortable residence.

The main plus point is the close proximity to a pebble beach, roughly one minutes walk away. Days can be enjoyed lapping in the large pool interspersed with time spent at the beach, finished perhaps on the outdoor terrace as the sun goes down, with your favourite drink in hand!

The property itself is split over several buildings; a main house with communal areas including the living/dining room, with the Master suite dominating the upper floor. There are two bungalow type residences each with two bedrooms and a further one bedded guesthouse suite.

The nearest village is four minutes drive away (Alyki), the airport at Paros is ten minutes drive away. There are live in staff who reside in the main house on a lower level. Daily maid service is included.
