"Sitting on an elevated position from which to enjoy inspiring views over the sea and the distinctive barren countryside, this 5-bedroomed contemporary villa with shaped pool and outdoor Jacuzzi is ideal for a relaxing holiday within easy access of the beach and Mykonos main town, Chora".

The villa is part of a villa complex, built entirely out of stone to integrate into its rocky setting, and opens to a generous outdoor area that revolves around a free-form pool. The terrace provides an ideal spot to sit back and watch the sunset in its full glory. The living area is airy and bright, pierced from several glass doors that make it feel like part of the terrace. The bedroom balances warmth and simplicity to create a fresh, modern look. Large windows and glass doors are installed to open the rooms to the striking views and maximise the house's indoor-outdoor feel.
