"Splendidly carved within the rocky slope of Pouli in Mykonos, this large luxury residence for 14 people features sea views to die for, a fresh water infinity pool with Jacuzzi area and outdoor bar for the ultimate relax experience in the Cyclades".

This is a very large property with individual buildings, each one perfectly catering for all needs. A three-storey main building, two independent guesthouses at ground level and two individual studios can accommodate up to fourteen guests in a total of seven bedrooms. The main house features an open plan living and sitting area and a fully equipped kitchen on the ground floor, a spacious master bedroom with two shower bathrooms on the top level and two double en-suite bedrooms on the lower level.

The two separate guestrooms interconnect and share a terrace with a dining spot while they can access the main house through the lower level. Both feature a double en-suite bedroom and one of them also hosts a mezzanine ideal for two children. Each of the two independent studios is ideal for a couple and they also share a shaded terrace with dining table.

All interiors are masterfully decorated with amazing wooden ornaments and decorations, minimal furnishing and exquisite interior design elements following the traditional white-washed, stone built Cycladic architecture.

The large, fresh water infinity pool features a Jacuzzi area while surrounded by sun loungers, a comfortable sitting area, an outdoor bar and a dining space boasting stunning views to the sea horizon.
