"Situated on the north coast of Mykonos, within walking distance of Panormos beach and a short drive of Mykonos town, Villa Polymnia is truly a gem of this Cycladian island, perfectly designed for a relaxing family holiday with spectacular sea views, heated pool, pool bar, air conditioning and a playground to keep the kids amused".

Featuring the typical Cycladian architecture, the house was given an organic form and painted white to reflect the sun rays, creating a sharp contrast with its barren setting. Cosy lounging spots, a handsome infinity pool and a rustic dining table -all with panoramic views over the bay- set the scene for outdoor entertaining. At the lower level, there is also a playground. The interior is grand and at the same time intimate, featuring an unpretentious blend of country-chic and contemporary style with designer pieces and hand-picked art objects. The residence includes a guest apartment that is perfect for older children and a pool house with a double bedroom.
