"Perfectly situated on the seafront near Mykonos town and Agios Stefanos beach, this luxury contemporary property boasts a large heatable pool and a magnificent terrace with panoramic views over the Aegean sea, easily accessible to guests via a private path".

Close to the island's main town and some renowned beaches, this attractive contemporary villa sits in generous grounds providing an excellent view point from which to enjoy spectacular sunsets over the sea and other islands from the same archipelago. The interiors are stylish and minimalist with plenty of light streaming through large windows and French doors leading onto a spacious terrace comprising a long pool, pool bar and an outdoor dining and lounge area. Ideal for large groups, the accommodation for 14 guests spreads over 2 buildings connected by a central body. In addition, this villa features a small private cove accessible via a flight of stone steps and a private helipad.
